

This is an example of a doubles Tennis match between teams A & B and C & D.

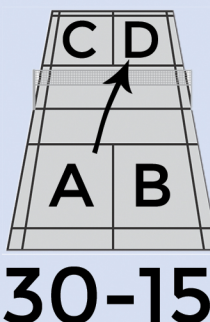

Scenario:
- A & B win the coin toss and choose to serve first.
- A serves from the right service court.
Score: 0-0
Service: Serving from the Right Service Court.
Server & Receiver: A serves to C.
Winner: A & B

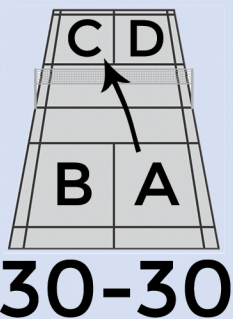

Score: 15-0
Service: Serving from the Left Service Court.
Server & Receiver: A serves to D.
C & D do not move.
Winner: C & D

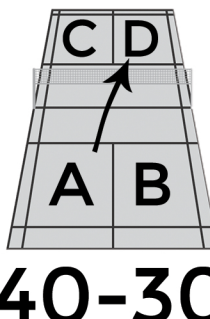

Score: 15-15
Service: Serving from the Right Service Court.
Server & Receiver: A serves to C.
Winner: A & B

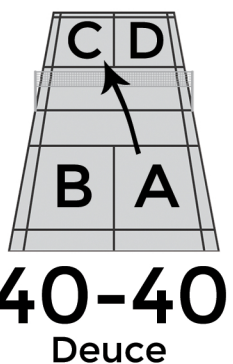

Score: 30-15
Service: Serving from the Left Service Court.
Server & Receiver: A serves to D.
Winner: C & D

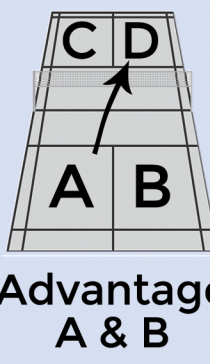

Score: 30-30
Service: Serving from the Right Service Court.
Server & Receiver: A serves to C.
Winner: C & D

Score: 40-30
Service: Serving from the Left Service Court.
Server & Receiver: A serves to D.
Winner: A & B

Score: 40-40 = Deuce
Service: Serving from the Right Service Court.
Server & Receiver: A serves to C.
Winner: A & B

Score: Advantage A & B
Service: Serving from the Left Service Court.
Server & Receiver: A serves to D.
Game Winner: A & B

The server will switch service courts every point, regardless of which team won the previous rally.